

Articles of Incorporation of International Clean Language Association

First:

The name of the Unincorporated Association (hereafter referred to as the Association) shall be the International Clean Language Association.

Second:

The Association establishes an independent place for the Clean Language community of practitioners, supporters, and enthusiasts to connect and collaborate around common needs and interests related to Clean Language and its derivatives.

The Association enhances the cohesion of the whole Clean community by inspiring in members a sense of belonging and providing a myriad of ways to participate and contribute.

The Association works to enhance the credibility of Clean Language as a recognized professional methodology. In furtherance of this purpose, the Association aims to establish credentialing standards across a range of Clean applications.

The Association works to globally promote and enhance the visibility and advancement of Clean Language. It supports the growth and development of its members' Clean Language expertise and new areas of exploration and application.

The Association works to preserve the core and rigor of Clean Language, sustaining Clean Language for future generations.

Third:

The Association is a dynamic entity whose purpose evolves with the interests of its members.

In keeping with the values of David Grove, the originator of Clean Language, the Association seeks to advance a spirit of generosity and inclusion in the sharing and development of Clean Language. It embodies the open curiosity and respect for others at the heart of Clean interactions. The Association strives to create a space where all feel welcome and invited to participate equally.
